DYNAMIC REFLECTION	ABSTRACT DIVISION - CONTEMPORARY SPACES: THE REMIXES PART 1 (TENSAL, DEEPBASS and NESS, LEWIS FAUTZI & STEFAN VINCENT RMXS)	10.10 €
DREF031		12"

A1	A couple of months after the release of Contemporary Spaces, four of Abstract Division's tracks get remixed. And who better suited for the job than label residents Stefan Vincent and Deepbass & Ness, and Dynamic Reflection debutants Tensal and Lewis Fautzi. Tensal has reshaped 'The Hunt' into a powerful club-banger. The original synth is still present, although heavily processed by a number of echoes and reverbs. That, backed up by numerous noises going on in the background, makes it a Hunting piece of music indeed. Deepbass and Ness have taken 'Passenger' for their account and transformed it into something of their own, inimitable sound. Deep and subby kicks, complemented with complex soundscapes. Lewis Fautzi's version of Encounter is clearly deeper than the original. The impellent synth and matching percussion, make it a fascinating trip to listen to. Stefan Vincent has formed Glide - the original EP's soundscape intro - into a beautiful piece of breakbeat-techno. And with that, he has provided the perfect outro for this remix-EP. For all the WAV and MP3 heads, there's a digital bonus version of 'The Hunt' included as well

	MECHATRONICA MUSIC	VARIOUS ARTISTS - MECHATRONICA # 1 (SYNC 24 and LUKE EARGOGGLE, UHU, PRIVACY & ETCHER)	10.10 €
	MTRON001		12"
	ELECTRO		GER

A1	With a fleshy mix of acid and electro cuts from Sync 24, Privacy, Luke Eargoggle, Etcher and -=UHU=, Berlin's longstanding machine-driven music collective, Mechatronica, forcefully unites the classic and new sound on their first record release. A first-ever collaboration between established electro commanders Luke Eargoggle and Sync 24 opens the record in toxic floor burning fashion, followed by a cold and tightly programmed electro journey by -=UHU=, blending the mechanic and the monotone in a comment on today's relationship between machine and man. Building on strong previous releases with Lobster Theremin and Klasse Wrecks, Privacy kicks off the flip, taking the tempo down with a booming, melodic electro cut, followed by a funky acid workout by Etcher featuring his signature bubbly basslines and soothing synths

	WU046		12"
	TECHNO		ESP
A1	We finally welcome one of our favourite producers in full format: P.E.A.R.L. Lately, the Berlin-based Spanish producer has been making big noise in the scene, playing in clubs all over the world, including Berghain. For this release he delivers three original tracks plus two Oscar Mulero remixes, one in the vinyl version and an extra one on digital. Vice of Kings is the starting cut: energized kick drum, modular sequences and subbass pressure. The main sequence flows and changes filter and dynamics throughout the whole arrangement, transmitting an overall metallic EBM feeling. Mirada Muerta is more droney and deep, with synthetic sweeps coming from left to right, arpeggiated bass that evolves and mutates, lots of reverb and an exquisite arrangement. Oscar Mulero picks up the pace in his remake of Castaway. Uplifting tempos, delayed kicks, liquid stabs and sharp cabasas. Some crazy distorted noise appears in the middle, likely to produce massive damage in any proper sound system. Beyond the Past is based on flanged lines and has a deeper percussive approach than the previous tracks
