	430 WEST	OCTAVE ONE - CONQUERED NATION	11.20 €
	4W245		12"
	TECHNO / TECH-HOUSE / DETROIT		REPRESS
A1	Detroit's Burden Bros have long been looked upon with immense respect within contemporary dance music. Having been in operation since 1990 with their 430 West imprint they have long encapsulated the forward thinking vibe of Detroit Techno with their output over the last 20+ years, gaining praise from their motor city peers as well as fans worldwide. Having had success in the mainstream and an enduring underground presence they are well versed in the art of music. 'Conquered nation', released on 430 West in 1995, contains some of the brothers' trademark driving, technoïd grooves. One for the DJ's who buy 2 x copies, endless blends. As always the button labelled 'forward' is fully pressed, their tracks contain a raw type of energy that emanates from within, sounding amazing super LOUD and in the mix. This is that classic Detroit Techno sound, tracky, futuristic, weaponised burners that won't leave your bag. Essential purchase for the Techno lovers. Re-mastered, re-pressed and re-released in conjunction with the Burden Brothers / 430 West Records, Detroit USA

	ANDROID MUZIQ	STEVE PARKER - THEA EP	11.00 €
	ANDROIDREC014		12"
	TECHNO		AUS
A1	Steve Parker from the beautiful Portuguese city of Oporto makes his debut on Aussie outfit Android Muziq with one of his personal faves to date "Thea EP". Know for a unique and distinctive style, Steve Parker's biggest musical achievements, remotes back to 2009, when 'Mexilhao' topped the Beatport charts with an outstanding 3rd place on Techno 100, and in 2012 with Escuro EP being number 1 on Beatport Techno releases. With previous releases on quality labels like Josh Wink's Ovum Recordings, Dubfire's Sci+Tec, or Sven Vath's legendary Cocoon Recordings, he always keeps pushing things better and better, and once again proves his talents with this new release consisting of three quality deep and hypnotic techno cuts Thea, Rhea, and Rod

	BP50		12"
	TECHNO		GBR
A1	As a recent emerging artist, Rommek has shown promising developments in his own sound, as well as carving his way into the current techno scene. His extensive interest in sound design is embedded within the atmospheric, dynamic and textured tracks he produces. His debut, 'Thought Patterns EP' on the London based label Weekend Circuit, established his position on the map. Since then, various releases have proven his wide appeal through the combination of the energetic, gritty UK sound coalesced with deep and transcendental aspects. With his debut release last year on Blueprint with 'Moth Hole EP' he is back with this percussive EP

	CODEX	SPARTAQUE feat. GREENJACK - IN THE BEGINNING EP	11.50 €
	CODEX009		12"
	TECHNO / TECH-HOUSE / ACID		GBR
A1	Label Boss Spartaque delivers a massive 3 tracker on the first Codex vinyl release. In The Beginning sets forth a commanding bassline while acidic synths move fluidly with the rhythm and distinct arpeggios come together to take you into the darkness. Amber Room stomps through the room with an elastic groove, hi hats sessions and deep basslines, while clearing the path for growling synths and melodic overtones layered with a sexy diva vocal sample. The EP closes with a track titled 'Berliner Goes The Rave' collaboration with Spartaque's good friend Greenjack, which delivers a grinding bassline in combination with the hypnotic male vocals of the haunting kind, eerie notes and a mysterious vibe throughout

	COMEME	VARIOUS ARTISTS - COMEME # 6 (DANIEL MALOSO, MATIAS AGUAYO, CHRISTIAN S. & REBOLLEDO feat. RAQUEL WOLFF)	10.80 €
	COMEME006		12"
	ELECTRO-TECH / EBM / HOUSE / TECH-HOUSE		REPRESS
A1	Cómeme label has been specifically formed to highlight artists making dance music in South America. The tracks on the label are inspired and built for their Buenos Aires based Bumbumbox street parties, where makeshift sound systems are built from linked together ghetto blasters. The tracks are tested at the parties, so the music on these records is typically tough, with a South American flavour, there is no place for the cold 4/4 engineering of minimal techno which is primarily made with expensive soundsystems in mind, these tracks are about chunky rhythm, melody and colour, built to cut through under any circumstances without pandering to cliché

	COMEME013		12"
	ELECTRO-TECH / EBM / HOUSE / TECH-HOUSE		REPRESS
A1	After only a tiny time-out Cómeme can't help but remain restless and return even more internationalist than before, since this EP brings together artists from Moscow, Medellin and Cologne, as well as guests from Spain. It's a collection of tracks that translate Cómeme's ever quintessential voltage into different musical temperaments, drawing the bow from infectious semi-electronic body music and cumbia-inspired rhythm affairs to detached pitch-frenzied sequence-disco and a sphinx creature with fanfares and whiplashes. Typical Cómeme the opener doesn't falter to capture the dancer. Berlin esta helado (Berlin is frozen) is the stirring and boisterous result of a jam session held in Matias Aguayo's district studio in Berlin, not far from David Bowie's late 70s address and close to a cemetery which harbours the Brothers Grimm. Philipp Gorbachev (prod.)

	CURLE059		12"
	TECHNO		BEL
A1	Since forming four years ago, Italian based trio Agents Of Time have already released on both Maceo Plex's Ellum and Jennifer Cardini's Correspondant imprints. On top of crafting remixes for artists including Sailor & I and WhoMadeWho, this year saw the launch of their own label entitled 'Obscura', named after the parties they have been running for the past three years. 'Xylo' is their debut EP for Curle, offering both atmospheric but firm techno, complemented by a healthy dose of floating melodies. Be sure to check out their analogue live act when you can, they made Resident Advisor's live Top 20 (https://www.residentadvisor.net/features/2858) for a reason last year!

	EPM MUSIC	MARK BROOM - KING EP (GARY BECK RMX)	9.60 €
	EPM017V		12"
	TECHNO		NLD
A1	Following on from 'One Sound / Myth' released in June, 'King' is the second in a trilogy of EPs for EPMmusic by Mark Broom. Where the first EP featured Mark's classic techno skills, on his 'King EP' we get another side to Broom, although anyone familiar with his huge catalogue of releases or tight DJ sets will already know there's more to the UK maestro than straight-up techno. From the get go on his 'King EP', Broom delivers peak time heat. The EP features three new cuts where house meets UK techno. The title track is intensely addictive, with its tough, tracky groove, stomping bassline and woven disco sample. '77' and 'LX' continue the theme but with a deeper quality. The former is a dizzying number that could have easily come out of the windy city, but pauses here and there for a touch of UK flavour, while the latter is a looped stomper, with it's piano refrain and compact beats. Also featured on the EP is a stripped-back remix of 'King' from Bek Audio's Gary Beck who cuts away from the disco, leaves the stabs and biting groove, but adds an epic sweep to autograph his work. Look out for the third EP in our Mark Broom series at the end of the year

M-PLANT		FLOORPLAN aka ROBERT HOOD - LET THE CHURCH (ROBERT HOOD RMX)	9.60 €
MPM29			12"
TECHNO / TECH-HOUSE / DETROIT			USA
A1	Floorplan, the father-daughter duo of Robert and Lyric Hood return with their first new productions since last summer's triumphant 'Victorious' album. The new EP, which will be released on 12" vinyl and as digital download in June features two new tracks, which they have been road-testing at recent gigs and featured on their EPM podcast http://s.epm-music.com/FloorplanPod. The stripped-back 'Let The Church' straddles the realm between tough House and raw Techno with its hefty bassline, infectious claps and vocal cry, while 'Made In My Mind' focuses on a looped piano refrain and funk-ed-up drumwork under a joyous gospel vocal, mixed down like only Floorplan can. Also included is an hypnotic Robert Hood remix of 'He Can Save You' from 'Victorious', before Lyric Hood turns her hand to the future classic, 'Never Grow Old' for a deep mix that shows her love of House grooves and recently closed their BBC Radio 1 Essential Mix in May. This summer they will also be bringing their new live set to Europe, alongside the high energy and spiritually uplifting DJ sets synonymous with Floorplan

TECHNO / ELECTRO-TECH / BROKEN			DEU
A1	To mark the release of their sophomore album, Dark Sky present a pair of remixes of their latest tracks. Brace yourself for a double treat of raw dancefloor virtuosity via Miami and Munich. 1. The Walker (Danny Daze Remix) 2. Kilter (Zenker Brothers Remix) Omniscient labelhead Danny Daze takes on the atmospheric march of „The Walker“, creating an eerie and intensely long build-up that eventually gives way to a slamming yet ethereal EBM finish. Next up are Munich's techno overlords the Zenker Brothers. They infuse „Kilter“ with some genuine breakbeat magic and hard-hitting industrial vibes while brilliantly reinventing the original track's melodic themes. Spot-on

A1	What a generous package from the folks of SPECIAL NEEDS who squeezed to silky, surprising latenight housecuts by PATRICK DREAM plus one remix by canada's hottly tipped deephouse export DJ ALI (village, visitor, classic etc.) on one 12"! DJ ALI brings the heat with steaming beats, dark, twisted dub effects and slightly claustrophobic atmospherics that spin you into a tight mace - this one packs enough tension for peakhours. PATRICK DREAM's original of "strange world" is a blissed out latenight house anthem with a infectious groove, sparkling synths and a bitter-sweet, bluesy vocals. "over" sports some rolling toms to get your hips twisting, swinging pads and soaring string chords. another great offering that's gonna fly of the shelves like the recent Jesper Dahlbaeck - you better be quick!

Jonas Landwehr continues diving deeper into his fascination for airy pad sounds and unique percussion styles that are not less silky than they are warm and powerful. Rythen closes the A-side with an electrifying and stomping floorkiller. Under their Environ. moniker Rythen & Felix Fleer open up the B-side by revisiting the previously encountered piano theme in a more club oriented way. The last words on this release are spoken by Alderaan, one of the most promising newcomers of the currently flourishing techno scene from Buenos Aires. With 'Clarity' he delivers atooly, yet psychedelic techno trip

A trend-setter, the former-architect exhibits a cogent production style making him an fitting addition to the label. A special track for Raxon, Delta was created en route to Cape Town for a big festival. I thought I would need to make some changes after the show, as is often the case, but the track worked, so I left it exactly as it is in its first original arrangement. Which any producer will know is rare'. The EP kicks off with an enticing intro, growing layer by layer with a detailed arrangement of ethereal synths and minimalistic percussion. A full breakdown mid-track leaves you craving more, before the final drop in all it's stomping glory. On the flipside, Jungle Express features a hastier intro and a balearic-inspired drum pattern. A siren hooks you in as it drops into a bass-ridden techno roller. Raxon has received critical acclaim east of the Mediterranean, boasting Best Dubai DJ in 2013/14 by Time Out Dubai. Developing and collaborating, Raxon has continued to develop his career working with imprints and artists including Ellum and Dynamic.

A1	After the three-track Time Enough At Last, Antigone returns with Ostinato for TOKEN75. As a project, the record is thematically accurate, adhering to its title's suggestion on both sides. The tracks play with layering techniques, gradually building a spectrum of sound around their respective persistent motifs. Antigone shifts these insistent base elements, allowing them the foreground before masking within a blend of carefully processed and organic-sounding details. Ostinato 1 is mild and disconcerting, with strings that verge on unnatural in their high pitch. Ostinato 2 is more traditionally dramatic, the space this time filled with keys that follow the ongoing theme, building to an ostentatious crescendo reminiscent of the roots of France

A1	After kicking off the year with Body Reflections pt.1 on Tresor, Berlin-based, Bournemouth-born Ben Thomas aka BNJMN is back with new label Tiercel. As an outlet for floor focused tracks he kicks off the imprint with "Paean" - 2 slabs of atmospheric, hypnotic, sci-fi Techno plus an ambient excursion in true otherworldly BNJMN fashion. The A1 track "Mass Conductor" solidifies BNJMN as a producer who can take the mood in any direction, creating layer upon layer of dense sonics which build to a pulverising climax. "The Greater Void" is a jarring beatless soundscape which takes you to the edge of the earth and finally the title track "Paean" is a song of worship - smooth yet hard, manic yet playful; taking you on a journey of paradoxes and sonic mysteries
