French imprint A-Traction Records returns with a new EP from Marst late June, featuring two original compositions and one remix from Moteka. Marst has been releasing music since 2012 via the likes of Kevin Saunderson's KMS Records, John Digweed's Bedrock and French Techno imprint A-Traction Records. Here we see Marst return to the latter with an exciting new project further showcasing his melodious, deep techno style which has seen heavy support from French electronic music pioneer Laurent Garner since his humble beginnings. Up first is title track 'Nanga' which sees Marst blend square wave arpeggios and an amalgamation of delayed staccato synth stabs with weighty rhythms and sporadic organic percussive rolls. The 'Vocal Mix' of 'Future' follows and embraces a deeper aesthetic via elongated sub drones, stuttering bass hits and snaking resonant lead hook, whilst psychedelic vocal murmurs further fuel its heady vibe A1 B1 B2

A1	This is the Birth of BOOM JACK's New Baby my dear friends 'n freaks... being asked to describe the 22 year old german musician Kolja Gerstenberg - one possible answer could sound like that he might be the last twin brother of Jamie Jones (but it's just one among any other suitable answers) the youngster and music student (he's studying drums at university) Kolja is a total opposite of the typical modern-music-scene-kind-of-guy as he sticks to his assion, which is House Music in it's classic disguise like 20 years ago. Kolja is not interested in following hypes or trends, what he loves are raw & dirty US House like trax or disco house flavoured tunes with loads of jazzy smell and glitter all over. Kolja is and will stay real & authentic by keeping this behaviour. He is not aiming at superfi just for the higher potential of success or money or fame ... Label honcho of two distinguished imprints of his own, 'Low Pressings' and 'Beat code', Flow's extensive back catalogue of eminent records are assumed collectables for the most ardent crate diggers. Regularly championed by vinyl purveyors including Ricardo Villalobos, Arpiar and Praslea, Flow's elegant style has been akin to the trademark early 2000's UK sound of the likes of Edaie Richards, Terry Francis and Nathan Coles. His 'Sawwhore EP' on Crystal Structures embodies that very same rolling tech-house through techno eloquence, and will undoubtedly become accustomed to any record bag which it gracefully finds its way into

FANTOME DE NUIT	PHILIPP PRIEBE - OUR SINS EP	8.90 €
FDN002		12"
MINIMAL / TECH-HOUSE	RE-STOCK	FRA
German producer Philipp Priebe is set to release his latest work, Our Sins, on Beirut based label Fantôme de Nuit. Philipp Priebe is a romantic and this rare attribute, at least in the world of electronic music, lies at the center of the music that he creates. The German producer combines warm, melancholic sounds with pushing elements to create a whimsical blend of organic and mechanic attributes. His first release on Fantôme de Nuit is a testament to his ability to create. Preibe opens his latest release with 'Above You', and the leading track is an excellent representation of the German House sound. Beginning with some almost jacking drum programming, a fat bass line quickly joins the arrangement. The track continues to build over the next minute and then, like a breath of fresh air, melodic pads provide a whimsical like quality. Preibe spends the remainder of the track building and breaking it down, each time adding a bit of life to the brooding opener. 'Kyoto' is a spaced out slow burner that packs some serious punch. Lead by acid dipped keys, the track features a barrage of ambient blips that create an atmosphere deserving of only the best systems

MINIMAL / DEEP-HOUSE	RE-STOCK / Vinyl Only	GBR

A1	Glue Music decides that wax is the way forward after a scheduled break with the previous release schedule being digital. Glue's tangible music format will continue after Label owner Richard Seeley delivers his first vinyl release since 2007 on VVWI with the Maria EP 'Maria' an organic piano-laden house track with a moody, ominous, misleading filtered start which flourishes into a feel-good house track with compelling whispering vocals and layered chords. 'Got the Taste' zones in on the relentless groove with breathless vocal stabs and unforgiving deepness which conforms to a simplistic affable approach. Rounding up the EP is 'Maria' remixed by Berlin based Producer 'Beaner' The La Mission label head serves up a trippy off kilter-creation with a clever contrast to the original

A1	Up first this time round though Neg pairs with Spinetti and Tommy All for title-track 'Twenty Euros For Dancing' a smoothly evolving slice of house fuelled by dusty drums, choppy disco licks and an amalgamation of vocal murmurs. Neg joins Pech for 'Back From Hollanda' next, laying focus on jazz tinged bass lines, fluttering wind instruments and loose organic percussion. Opening the flip is 'Hellon Sun' from Neg and Tommy All, retaining a similar musicality and jazz influence via melodious Rhodes and multi-layered synth lines alongside an infectious sub bass and shuffled rhythms. 'I Trust A Stranger' then rounds out the package, courtesy of Neg and Spinetti, taking a more stripped-back approach this time round with rumbling low-end, minute percussion and bright piano sequences

Silence In Metropolis is back on vinyl with four hot tracks that span the underground spectrum from deep, soulful, tech to techno. For those in-the-know know the name Desos (Deso Records / Tsuba). He joins the label with a deep cut 'Ah Sh' that has smooth overtures and a solid low end that will pump on a club sound system. We here at SIM have been long fans of Demarkus Lewis and so we are very proud to have him involved on the label with his signature sound highlighted in 'Spirits High'. Soulful driving deep house at it's best. He's been in the game for a while and for a good reason. The B side are artists no strangers to SIM. JMF whose 'Point To Yourself' EP was very well received returns to SIM with a Tech House stomper of a track: 'Slice'. With JMF's distinct percussive sound and the deep driving groove we have no doubt that this track will be played at a lot of underground parties. Next up, SIM boys Jus Nowhere & Jackson Ryland are back with a Techno roller coaster that is '3467'. A deep, dark excursion with Jus and Jackson at the helm. These guys are SIM family and they always deliver quality cuts
