	BERLIN ATONAL	SUMS - SUMS	12.40 €
	ATONAL004		12"
	TECHNO / EXPERIM. / DARK-AMBIENT	RE-STOCK	DEU
A1	SUMS is the collaborative project of French electronic producer Kangding Ray and Mogwai multi-instrumentalist Barry Burns. develop a new group that brought together different elements of both Kangding Ray and Barry Burns' musical traditions. Adding drumming savant Merlin Etore, the pair devised a musical world that crafts post-rock soundscapes and structures using the sound-language of contemporary techno and experimental electronic music. After a grand debut performance during the 2013 edition of the festival, the group decided take the project into the studio. Over a two-year period, working with a range of range of instruments, SUMS began to produce tracks that achieved an organic fusion of spatial electronics and rousing post-rock sounds that manages to seamlessly blends the best of the musical legacies of Mogwai and Kangding Ray. The first action of this new phase of the project comes in the form of a 3 track EP on Berlin Atonal Recordings. A new live show will be shown first at Rewire festival on April 2nd

	BLACK BROOK LIMITED	CARDAO - NEMESIS (JOTON RMX)	8.90 €
	BBLV010		12"
	TECHNO	RE-STOCK	DEU
A1	Black Brook Limited BBLV010 comes along with analog underground techno from Lisbon's man of the hour Cardao. The Portuguese produces techno in his distinctive unique style. It has a lot of bass in it and slightly funky signals guide you the way into deep hypnotic tunnels. In parts of the track Nemesis you feel the dominance of the raw sewing hihats driving you even further. By the way each track keeps the groove which is so often missed these days. Thumbs up! Supported by: Orde M./Slam,Oswld,Pfirfer,Mary Vela,Vlog / B55 Records,Chris Liebing, Patrick DSP,Arnaud Le Texier,Krenzin,Hector Sandoval(EXIUM-TENSAL) Forest People,Jeroen Search,Moog Conspiracy,Jonas Kopp,Flug,Sarf Dr.Motte,Etapp Kyle,Benjamin Damage,MTD,Jose Pouj,XHEI,Florian Meindl and many more...

	BLACK BROOK LIMITED	KAELAN - EDGE EP (BIRTH OF FREQUENCY & C LOW and MARC TROIT RMXS)	9.50 €
	BBLV011		12"
	TECHNO	RE-STOCK	DEU
A1	The first impression in one word: Detroit. While dancing to - Edge by Kaelan you will find your path in the music to another place in space. Wherever your personal way might guides you it must be a better place. The straight groove of the sound keeps warmth without any kitsch and Kaelan does it again in - Suppressor . The Birth of Frequency Remix of - Edge surprises as a completely different told story of - Edge. Deepness created by the use of more subliminal sounds like a slow rolling thunderstorm. This is EP contains serious techno. We promise. You dance.Supported by Pflirter,Benjamin Damage,P.E.A.R.L.Juho Kusti, Eric Fetcher,Dr. olte,Monoloc,Jonas Kopp,TWR72, Antonio De Angelis,Krenzlin,Truncate,Kwartz, Marcel Deltmann,Forest People,Arnaud Le Texier Jeroen Search,DJ Hyperactive and many more...

A1	The new publication on Delude Records is dedicated to a good friend. He was sound engineer and sound designer by Goldberg Audio. He mastered all the tracks of the label. In the last years, his mastering work was a big part of Delude Records sound. Dear Falk, R.I.P !!! This publication CONNECTED VOL.2 is spiked with four tracks of Delude Records artists. On the A side comes PATRICIE W. with his track EXPLORATION. A very nice dreamy track with warm melody. Definitely nice Techno Tech House sound of the young producer from Berlin. The second track is from PATRICK ARBEZ. He delivers a fulminant melodic techno track for the A side. The master of Dark Techno comes along with massive powerful kicks and nice synthesizer sounds. On the B side FRAU ANKE comes with a massive techno track called SUNDOWNER. Straight Techno sound from Ratingen. The second track on this side called CONTROL and is sponsored by the Delude Records label owner TOM ALMEX. Fat kicks and deep experimental sound, thats a perfect closer for this VARIOUS ARTIST EP

A1	It took us longer than we thought but finally release no.20 is here and we have a special treat for you. Freshly signed by Connaissance, 'Roman Rai' is back on our imprint with massive EP 'Perceptions Of Delusion'. First track of the same title is one of those tracks that will define this year here for us at Deepwave. Timeless, beautiful and simply breathtaking, not much more to say. Second track on A side 'Thoughts Are Gone' is a nice melodic ambient journey again showcasing Roman's artistic feel & creativity and expressing his feelings of past months. For first remix we invited our good friend and great producer 'Peter Pardeike' from Innervations, and what a remix he delivers! Outstanding, dreamy, and captivating track which gets you in the zone and off ground right from the beginning. Second remix comes in hands of 'Ian Metty' who did his classical journey rework, underlined with nice afro bongos and floating atmospheres, topped with bells from original to get things moving. Whole release is coming out both on Vinyl & digital in December/January, 2017/18 respectively, and we would love you to play it and support it as we strongly believe this is a unique piece of music! Thank you

American DJ & producer Eric Estornel AKA Maceo Plex is set to relaunch his old moniker called Mariel Ito in 2018. The mysterious alias was active during the early 2000's and flourished from Estornel's experimentation on electro sounds before he would become known worldwide as Maceo Plex. He delivered a bunch of releases under this moniker during 2005 and 2006 including an EP on Modern Love and an album on SCSL-AV, to name a few. Estornel will come back with a first Mariel Ito EP in 12 years. This new single titled '2e Komst' will land on January 26th on his fresh imprint Lone Romantic, that he launched with the recent Maceo Plex LP 'Solar' last summer. The EP brings two new tracks 'Sintex49' and 'Dmode90' that illustrates the electro edge of his sound with the recognizable obscure synths and electrifying samples of his productions. All tracks written & produced by Eric Estornel

	MONOLOGUE	RYAN CROSSON feat. CARI GOLDEN - WHAT STATE I'M IN (GUTI RMX)	7.90 €
	MNL001		12"
	TECH-MINIMAL		USA
A1	Monologue is a brand new label founded by the AltaVoz creator Max D. Blas and the producer and Kosmophono label owner Alex Piccini, that comes out of the blocks firing on all cylinders thanks to an essential EP from Ryan Crosson. Crosson, of course, has long been a part of the Visionquest collective, as well as having his own esteemed back catalogue with releases on labels like Minus, Mairny and Brachture. The Detroit artist is always evolving, and here shows us his grasp of elastic groove and freaky atmospheres as strong as ever. The title track is up first, What State I'm In featuring Cari Golden. It is a high tempo, high intensity track with slick and quick drums and hits and molten sci-fi melodies all racing along and taking you with them. Golden's vocals are hurried in the mix to add extra freakiness and the whole thing really sucks you in. Dumb Dancin' is up next and is eight minutes of loose limbed and liquid minimal techno. Claps bring funk, the drums are restless and infectious and subtle vocals are like wisps of smoke that come and go to add real steam to the groove

SNDST045	TECHNO		12"
A1	It's safe to say it's been too long since we last saw label bosses and heavy hitters Pan-Pot grace Second State with their 'Solace' EP back in November of 2016. So to have them back with two big bombs and a remix from the one and only Petter B on their 'Funke' EP curbs all anticipation from all of us who have been dying for new material. Kicking things off is 'Spitzer' with hi-octane percussion and reverb heavy acoustics spanned out over ten minutes where simplicity rules and the age old saying that "less is more" has never been more accurate. Flipping sides we see the duo take a similar approach on "Funke" but deliver a rugged and brutally mesmerizing lead that coaxes the inner devil inside all of us. Rounding out the EP is a carefully curated remix from Gothenburg's own and former Hertz collaborator Petter B who hands over a beautiful rendition of 'Spitzer' where dense, lavish atmospherics carry a heavy looping groove to a gorgeous climax. It's good to have the boys back and we think you will agree when you hear their stunning new 'Funke' EP.

TL004	TECHNO		12"
A1	Spanish techno artist Aiken is back on his own Timeline label with another EP that offers up four more of his evocative takes on the genre. It comes after previous outings on Non Series and Semantica and is his label's first release since 2016. Basic Principles is up first and mesmerises with a pulsing lead synth line that forever changes shape. Pummelling drums power along below and add up to a disorientating and hypnotic overall effect. Theory is deeper and more rubbery, with manic synths and pads all racing along and piling on the pressure while Midline is right out to the Jeff Mills playbook with its molten sci-fi synths journeying through outer space. Clean, crisp drums are upright and taught and get you on your toes, then Restriction closes things out in superb minimalist fashion. This EP covers plenty of ground, and all of it is utterly compelling

TOKEN84	TECHNO		12"
A1	After the celebrated Metabolism LP from last year, Sigha is back with a 4-track cut for TOKEN84. This untitled record remains understated, playing with variations on a theme whereby the similarities exist seemingly to illuminate the differences between the tracks. The relationship between Circular and Hum is reminiscent of Sigha's 2016 New Puritan flip on the earlier offering of Puritan from 2012; with Circular presenting a tight, meditative loop in high-mid frequencies while Hum inhabits a similar space, only seemingly from a distance. If those two are close, measured and controlled, the other tracks on the record demonstrate more freedom and abandon. Gliss is huge and heavy, while Flare's sonic elements interact playfully and scatter as the piece progresses

	WHY SO SERIES	GIASH - MEIE EP	10.60 €
	WSS006		12"
	MINIMAL-HOUSE	RE-STOCK / Vinyl Only / 180 grams	ROU
A1	Seeking new and unforgettable ways to express ourselves is the main serving of this course. First dish and last of this EP - Giash serves the 6th platter of the Why So Series menu, spiced and salted with all the right ingredients for each and every table. Starting of with the A1 entree, "Meie", which is riddled with Detroit heavy influences ranging from the omnipresent pads and morning dew details, sparkling with clear headed details and drum tracks which morph into a more stripped down structure which rests underneath the bedrock of the whole landscape. Beyond that we have the intermezzo B1 "Sailere", a more clairvoyant excursion into the more harmonious aspects of minimalistic perfection, keeping true to the artists intentions and executing with precise accuracy the melodic afterthoughts of the ephemeral. At the very end we're left with B2, "Eeder", the more introspective and "grow to love me" side of the dish. A melancholic and heavy set relief of the persona which is Giash, a Hungarian fellow which is new but at the same time so familiar to our cause, a true believer and relatable idiom which we all can identify with. Vinyl only, original artwork and what comes next may follow
