A1	The young nordic label is back at it with a sturdy 12" vinyl release, produced by the Helsinki underground electronic music champion Poly Sone. The three tracker kicks off with an intro track titled 'Come Find Me' which combines stripped down rhythm patterns with a subtle choir pad. On top of the foundation, an entrancing spoken word verse works as the main ingredient throughout the track. As the needle pushes onwards to the title track 'Echolocate', the listener is confronted with a robust wall of low-end, soon accompanied by rolling percussions and clever use of reverb and delay. The simple composition highlights its sterling production and makes for a highly useful dancefloor tool. The last track 'Helix' bundles up the record nicely as the most melodic one of the bunch. The agile synth stabs and dystopic pads operate on a surprisingly groovy soil of bass and drums which add up to a dreamy whole. In all its variety, Poly Sone's 'Echolocate EP' can be considered the dancers as well as the DJ's choice

Uno lleva ya unos cuantos años en este oficio pero no deja de sorprenderse. Las canciones se esconden en sitios verdaderamente insospechados, agazapadas hasta que encuentran el momento que creen adecuado para mostrarse. A veces se agrupan como una bandada de estorninos y pasan volando y haciendo acrobacias cada vez más cerca hasta que les prestas atención, otras un rastro de gotas o migas de pan te lleva hasta el sifón. Esta vez, una caravana de hormigas nos ha llevado hasta una bolsa de papel grasienta abandonada al parecer hace tiempo en una esquina de Guitartown. La hemos abierto con cuidado y se nos ha escapado un "Cielos!"

Disco debut de esta excelente banda de Punk Rock que editaría Discos Suicidas en 1987, y que consta de diez temas, himnos la mayoría. La banda se formó en 1983, en Barakaldo (Bizkaia), y tras algunos cambios de formación grabaron este gran disco, que a día de hoy es un pequeño clásico

A1	IP012: A new reference of the prestigious Spanish Techno label Injected Poison Records. After a year since from her last release on vinyl, during this time, we have been able to see some of her releases in digital format, but, It's vinyl time, we have generated enough waiting and now we can enjoy a powerful vinyl, with a magnificent work of art and design for collectors and four powerful tracks with 3 of the best producers of the Techno scene. IP005: Almost two years have gone by since the team at Injected Poison Records launched its previous vinyl record. Now, the label headed by the Spanish artist Jose Pouj brings us its fifth release. Available on vinyl and digital, this issue will be jam-packed with the best and most up-to-date techno, because they have enlisted the most outstanding Spanish producers: Oscar Mulero, Christian Wunsch, Exium and the label's boss himself: Jose Pouj, whom we also know as Hector Sandoval and Valentin Corujo. This track is slightly different from what we are accustomed to hear from these producers: a great and dynamic structure which is innovating, whilst retaining the characteristic sound of the duo

	MATERIA	EMMANUEL TOP - FESTIVAL SUICIDE	10.70 €
	M10		12"
	TECHNO / ACID	HandStamped	BEL
A1	Emmanuel Top has been releasing better records ever since he first emerged in the early 90s. In recent times the Paris based artist has done several heavy hitting singles with a number of respected labels. M10 is a special 2 track record that has two version of the sought after Festival Suicide record that popped up in many DJ sets over the last year. While the Closing Night Mix (A-Side) is a gloomy, yet staggering work of low-down Techno, the Opening Night Mix (B-Side) is based on a soaring lead sound that serves as the back bone of this anticipated 12'

	MEGA101		LP
	PUNK	REPRESS	EH
A1	Reedición de esta pequeña joya del punk vasco, originalmente editado en 1995 y que sería el último disco de la banda con Victor como vocalista, que fallecería poco después. Un disco bastante oscuro y con letras enfocadas hacia el terror y la muerte, y con un sonido de guitarras más potentes, otro paso más en la constante evolución de la banda. Incluye revista a color de 12 páginas donde se repasa la trayectoria de la banda

	PUNK	REPRESS / 500 copies / 1st Time on Vinyl	EH
A1	Por primera vez en vinilo! Fanzine de 24 paginas. Dos postales y un poster. Edicion limitada 500 copias! Este es el primer álbum del grupo sin la presencia de sus fundadores e ideólogos losu Expósito y Juanma Suárez. Tras la muerte de losu el 31 de mayo de 1992, Pako y Juanma decidieron seguir adelante con un nuevo proyecto junto a Urko Igarburu, aunque durante las sesiones Juanma estaba muy débil de salud, lo cual terminó con su fallecimiento el 9 de octubre de 1992. Tras esto, Pako se pone en contacto con I;aki, quién había reemplazado a losu en la gira de Eskorbuto en México, esta vez como bajista, y junto a Garolpa y Urko Igarburu para completar la formación. La parte trasera del álbum posee la siguiente línea que dice> @Abandonar Eskorbuto en estos momentos sería una clara victoria para nuestros enemigos... ==> eso jamás!!@ / Pako Eskorbuto

A1 A2 A3 B1 B2 B3	Third and last release by the band (Metak 2005). A more spontaneous, eighties/style disc than the previous ones, with heavier touches but without losing the personality of the "Kuraia" sound. Rock, punk and high energy have a bigger presence than ever

A1 A2 B1 B2	No Moon blends electro, breaks, acid and UK bass into a forward-thinking club EP for the 7th release from Berlin based collective, Mechatronica. Opening with 'Sirens', the A-side plunges straight into deep and breaky sub-domains, before sliding on to the brighter and melodic, but equally heavy workout, 'Bathtub Dub'. On the flip, electro and UK bass come together on gloomy tool 'Where Am I', before 'Acid IX' finishes off the record with a blissful, distorted acid frenzy for the floor

A1 A2 B1 B2	Australian producers Jensen Interceptor and Assembler Code team up with The Hacker to deliver another powerful electro release on Mechatronica. Vapour Waves is blasted open by the effective, bumping sunray anthem Random Pain, followed by the darker soundscapes and wonky bassline of HRL6. On the flip, The Hacker's stinky, metallic rework of Drive Shift plunges straight into the deep, following the cold groove and hypnotic design of the original version

A1 A2 B1 B2	Natch Records LTD is back with a new ep signed by the polish talent Concept Of Thrill. Broken beats, sharp percussions and reverberating synthlines are the main elements of this 4-tracker, which still carries haunting atmospheres while inflaming the dancefloor

OAKS	HECTOR OAKS - GROWN FROM THE ASHES	10.80 €
OAKS08RP		12"
TECHNO	REPRESS / Black Vinyl	DEU

A1	All that was fire and only ashes were left. No matter how many times we burn, as the scum, we'll grow again. Proudly introducing the last Maxi-Single I'll be releasing this year. (No don't worry, OAKS is fully scheduled so you will hear from us). For the first time, I'm releasing a 4-tracker with highly emotive p(f)unktional music, for the warehouse or the club. These songs are written in a certain mood and I suppose that they accomplish their purpose. The willing to get lost, avoid reality and at least for some time forget this mad world that surrounds us. Please do not stop the rave."

A1 A2 B1 B2	Machines redefined and shaped the way we make music and gave access to new sounds. Enabling the availability of music instruments to a wider spectrum of artists gave birth to many genres and sound aesthetics. The sound of Roland machines from the 80's have had a huge influence on underground music and is outstandingly beautiful. Therefore this very first Talking Machines v.a. is dedicated to the synthesizer Roland SH-101
